

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY ASSOCIATION OF New Zealand (MTANZ) CERTIFICATE

- WHO This certificate course has been developed for all people employed in the supply of medical technology in New Zealand.
- WHY To provide standards and information that will help create professional credibility for all people employed in the health industry sector.
- WHEN
- Distance Learning Course allows flexibility of starting as soon as enrolment received
 - Can be completed concurrently while engaged in the health supply industry
 - Suggested completion time of 6 months
- WHAT The development of the course was with the input of a number of health professionals and MTANZ company members.
The course consists of three modules which are subdivided into chapters. The modules are:
- Module 1: The New Zealand Health System
 - Module 2: Legislation
 - Module 3: Health Economics
- The pass mark for the course is 85%
Cost per participant $900.00 (excl GST)
- HOW
1. Phone or email Synergy Training to complete enrolment form
 2. Materials will be dispatched to the participant or designated company coordinator.
 3. Completed Assignments are sent to Synergy, for the course moderator to mark. Marked assignments are returned with a confirmation letter.

Certification

On completion of the course Certificates are awarded at the Annual Conference of the MTANZ. This is an industry recognised qualification and the letters "MTANZ Cert" can be added after your name.